

Five Receive Chairman's Service Award

Past RVDA Chairman Marty Shea of Madison RV Center, Huntsville, AL, honored five individuals Sept. 23 for their service to the association with RVDA Chairman's Service Awards.

Bert Alanko of MBA Insurance in Scottsdale, AZ, received the award for his long-standing commitment to serving dealers and RV rental companies. Alanko is a founding member of the RV Rental Association (RVRA), serves on the RVDA Board of Directors as RVRA Chairman, and works to increase the visibility of the RV rental business both within the industry and to the general public. "Bert is the association's all time membership recruiter and he has been an important member of the RVDA Board of Directors since the early 90's as the RV Rental Association Chairman," said Shea.
